FOREWORD

Here at Poly, we are part of the vast, modern younger generation . . . alive, vibrant, on the go. Much has been written and said against our age; but throughout time the youth have weathered such criticism. And as each age has matured, the new has replaced the old — and no one has yet toppled the earth from its axis!

Our generation has more of good than bad to offer, more of the genuine than of the cheap imitation. We are confidently certain that the solid principles of the majority of us will snow under the sick ideas of the noisy few.

We are the younger generation — better informed, we hope, than any preceding younger generation. And we intend to prove it.

Faculty

Mr. Bruce Miller, our Superintendent of Schools, is well known on the Poly campus as a true friend of education, doing all that he can to help and improve not only the program at Poly but also throughout the school district. His genuine sincerity, priceless sense of humor and his fine ability and insight add up to make Mr. Miller the strong administrator that he is.

Leaders of Our

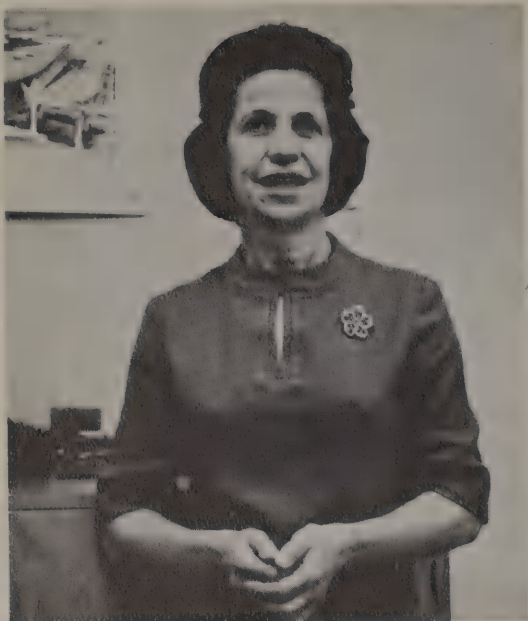

The members of the Riverside School Board were never "bored" with their role as downtown administrators. They did their best, despite a tight budget, to make the schools of this city something to be proud of. Faced with situations from beards to extra classes for teachers, the Board solved the daily problems. Our thanks go to, Row 1: Mrs. Evelyn Kendrick (clerk), Mr. Arthur L. Littleworth (president), Mrs. Margaret Heers. Row 2: Dr. Vernon Stern, Mr. B. Rae Sharp (vice-president), and Mr. Bruce Miller (superintendent of schools).

Commonly known as "George," our Principal, Mr. George Wrentmore, managed the office with a steady hand. He braved and parried whatever unexpected turns of events came to him. Even when he had to say "No!" we all knew he was on our side. He made it his business to get to know as many students as possible and to help and encourage them in as many ways as he could. Here we see him on one of his daily tours of the campus as he makes sure that all is going smoothly. And all is going well, indeed, under the guidance of this Principal.

Generation

Our Vice-principal, Mr. B. F. Thorson, was always ready to lend a hand—whether it was to help a new student or to carry out his role as Poly's disciplinarian. His job was not always easy—what with senior marches on the library and such—but his friendliness and understanding were the two dominant features that carried him to popularity in these "hallowed halls." His hours spent in long and hard work were not in vain, for with men like him, Poly prospered and became known as THE school in Riverside.

The new Dean of Girls this year was Mrs. Anne Rush. Although most of us remember her as a counselor from last year, as Dean she has already found an affectionate place in many of our hearts. In the shortest period of time she had things going smoothly and she found her new niche at Poly.

Setting the horizons for Poly students was "Uncle Milt," Mr. Milton Tew. As head Dean of Guidance, he was responsible for making sure that everyone received all the information and counseling they required.

The juniors were advised by Mr. Charles Shewman. He informed them of necessary tests and did his very best to see that everyone was doing everything necessary to prepare for college.

Guidance

Mrs. Pauline Whitfield, counselor for the "Zits," is seen here helping Jennie Sanchez look into a home economics major. It was Mrs. Whitfield's job to see that all the sophomores started off on the right foot for their next three years at Poly.

Perhaps the hardest grade to counsel is the seniors, for they must be informed of tests, scholarships, visitations, and other college information. Mrs. Ruth Wheeler not only did this, but also helped those not going on to college select the best alternative.

Our school nurse, Mrs. Elsie Adelson, is seen here putting drops in Nancy Capper's eyes. Mrs. Adelson devoted a lot of time keeping us all in as good health as possible, and we certainly owe her much appreciation for her work.

Mr. Llew Smith is in charge of the Special Education classes. These classes prepare students who are not enrolled for regular school work to learn some trade and otherwise develop information that would insure them of a job after high school.

Was their Field

"You say you were sick yesterday?" Well, you certainly got a good sunburn at home in bed." So runs a typical conversation with our Attendance Superintendent, Mr. Ben Hammerschmidt. Although we don't always appreciate his efficiency, we must admit that he is an excellent administrator.

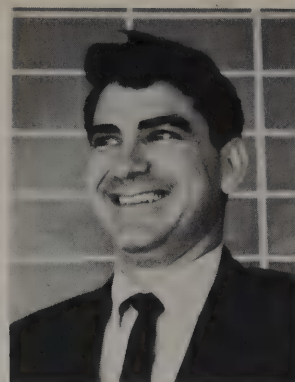

Showing us our spacious new library is Mrs. Barbara Clyde, our librarian. Her efficiency soon got the library in working order, and she did a wonderful job of seeing that it was a quiet place to do research and studying.

Mr. Mead Camp and James Dietrich are arguing about the best way to measure the circumference of the world. "Well," says Jim, "you can do it your way and I'll do it mine, and we'll see who gets done first!"

In the MATH department we learned all the modern math, and came out wondering if two and two really does equal four. We struggled through hours of angles, cosines, logarithms, and proofs; and promptly forgot it all when it came time to take a test. Somehow, with plenty of effort and No-Doz, we made it through and promptly forgot all the suffering we had endured.

Dissecting cats, measuring velocity, and concocting potions are all part of the SCIENCE department. Have you ever seen a sheep's brain in a jar,* or a bottle of acid totally engulf a human being? If you would like to, this department was made for you. Besides learning important facts, you are sure to have a good time, and this makes the science department so popular among students.

Laura Critchlow certainly knows how to get a "charge" out of life, as she illustrates here—that ball is putting out 250,000 volts. Mr. Donald Rowe, Physics teacher, supervises.

Besides teaching English, Mrs. Roberta Adams finds time to sponsor the pom-pom girls: D. Donahue, P. Stockwell, M. Mason, C. Ford, L. McCormick, and R. Arend.

Dangling modifiers, fragments, parallelism, and unclear statements are all problems that face students in the ENGLISH department. We read 500-page books in one night and wrote term papers in two, but actually learned a great deal and graduated from Poly as "cultured" students.

Mr. William Bell returned from World War II in great style, but dutifully conformed to Poly's dress code and shaved off his mustache before he resumed teaching.

Did you know that Alexander the Great's horse's name was Usefolis? Do you know how to pronounce sukiyaki correctly? Both these things come under the category of SOCIAL STUDIES. Sophomores take world cultures, juniors take American history, and seniors take government. Seniors may elect to take world history (which is incidentally one of the most fascinating courses at Poly).

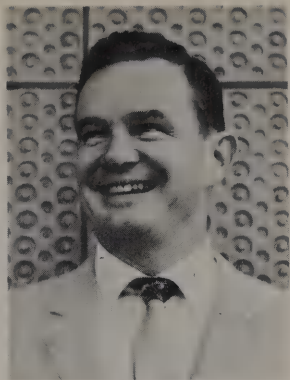

During this year there was a serious battle going on between Mr. Jack Smith and the Red Baron. . . . Here Mr. Smith describes how he outwitted his foe by disguising himself as a French farmer's daughter and sneaking across the border undetected.

The Fine Arts

To become even more well rounded, we have the ART, MUSIC, and DRAMA departments. Here our talents were born and cultivated, and many of us prepared for careers under the limelight. Not everyone was serious about these fields, and to them these classes were just a means of creative relaxation.

Whimpies . . . They Knew

IN MEMORIAM
Thomas Justice, Class of 1967

The class of '67, christened the Whimpies, will always rule! As sophomores, they scrubbed the sacred "R" for the last time, and as juniors, they beat the falsely confident seniors at the inter-class track meet. As seniors they kept the inferior Beaohs and Zits in their places by producing the Senior Class play, "Playboy of the Western World," and by planning a perfect Midwinter Ball, "Once upon a time. . . ." By the time they were 17, they had blazed their trail down to the beach, and had spent three fantastic Spring Vacations there. Yes, the class of '67 knows its way around!

"Say, Bri," says Roger James (center) to Brian Worley, "how about being a little more careful where you slam that hoe. I'd like to keep both hands." Rick Wheeler helps with the "steer" as these boys plant trees and shrubs in the senior quad.

The first annual All-night Disneyland party was a huge success, even though the hotel and Tom Sawyer's island were closed. Seniors danced to the sound of many popular bands and wearily made their way home at 4:00 a.m., ready for a day at the beach.

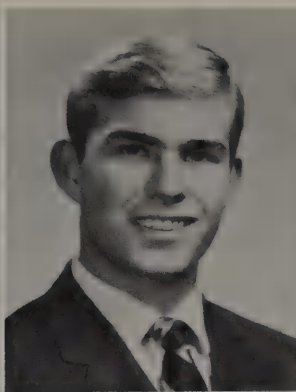

"Oh, oh," says Greg Fast, Senior Class Vice-president, to Becky Borgert, Social Chairman; Ann Cochran, Treasurer; and Suzy Lewis, Secretary, "I think that mob is after us. . . . I knew we shouldn't have done it."

Their Way Around

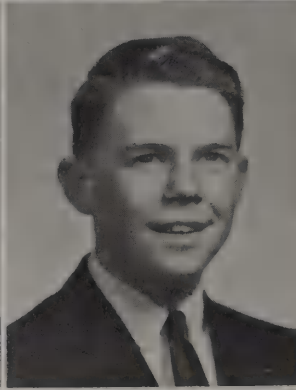

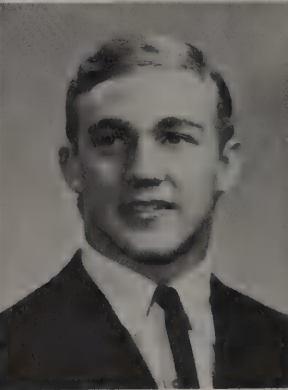

Being an advisor to the Senior Class can be fun, as Miss Vicky Schouler and Mrs. Roberta Adams (front), Mr. Mead Camp, Mr. Jack Fitzgerald, and Mr. Donald Rowe show. They just pity the poor advisors to the Junior and Sophomore Classes!

A jubilant cry of "Erin go brath!" resounds from Mr. William Bell's senior Honors English class as they celebrate St. Patrick's day in true Irish fashion.

"Three cheers for milk!" shouts the Senior Quad-for-Lunch Bunch. •

"Let go of my diploma!" says Karen Saunders. "Rabbits can't graduate, Derfy."

Mr. David Bigbee and Mrs. Eleanore Snedden, Junior Class Advisors, are taking a moment's rest from the problems of the Junior-Senior Prom and other "Beaoh" activities.

On Their Way Up -

These six juniors were the master minds behind their class. Row 1: Sandy Sersland, Social Chairman; Dan Dotta, President; Barbara Kruse, Vice-President. Row 2: Connie Weingart, Treasurer; Chris Rees, Secretary; Lynn Dalton, Concessions.

These Beaohs, the Junior Class Council, planned a perfect prom and made their mark at Poly. They are Georgia Lewis, Steve Hagen, Mark

Bonnett, Kim Gleeson, Peter Bohr, Candice Green, Gail Vassily, Debbie Wymer.

The Beaohs

Yes, these were the Beaohs, the mighty Junior Class. On their way up in the world, the Juniors entertained us with the hilarious "Charley's Aunt" and then came another step closer to becoming great when they produced a perfect prom — Fantasia. After two long years of oppression as lowly underdogs, the Beaohs finally arose from their misery when the Daisy Chain ushered the exalted Senior Class off campus at graduation. Next year the Beaohs will step into the ranks of glory as they take up their position as the all-powerful Senior Class of Poly High.

"Now listen you guys," says Denise Dales (third from the left) "that woman didn't stop to have her car washed!" Laura Gullette, John Lydon, Kevin Moody, and Allen Green are the culprits washing the car to raise money for new Concert Choir robes.

The sophomore class council did everything possible to bring their lowly classmates up from the bottom of society. The members of the council are: Row 1: I. Thiel, S. Crawford, P. Ryneal. Row 2: D. McCoy, S. Joram, A. Rutten, J. Jenks. Row 3: S. Beller, T. Brooks, B. Sattler, J. Addis.

September, 1966, struck terror into many hearts at Poly. Ready to descend upon our hallowed halls was an indescribable mass of humanity—the class of '69. They filled the campus with their miserable bodies, and were appropriately christened the "zits." Slowly, but surely, they have been improving so that next year they will be prepared to move to the ranks of "mighty" juniors; ready to accept the next unbelievable mass . . . the new sophomore class.

The Scourge of Being a sophomore can be pretty rough, but being the Sophomore Class Advisor is almost unbearable. "What did I ever do to deserve this?" moans Mr. Joseph Cummings.

ZITS

Doug Allen (right), Senior Class President, arrived in great style with his First Lady, Hummingbird (Carl Peterson), to bestow the name that will belong to the class of '69 for eternity. The name of the sophomore class, the "Zits," exemplifies the sheer degradation that fills the hearts of upperclassmen.

And With Calm Assurance,

Poly custodian hits the bucket from 14 feet! Watch for him at the '88 Olympics!

GAFFMAN . . . Protector of the underclassmen! Never fear, Gaff is here!

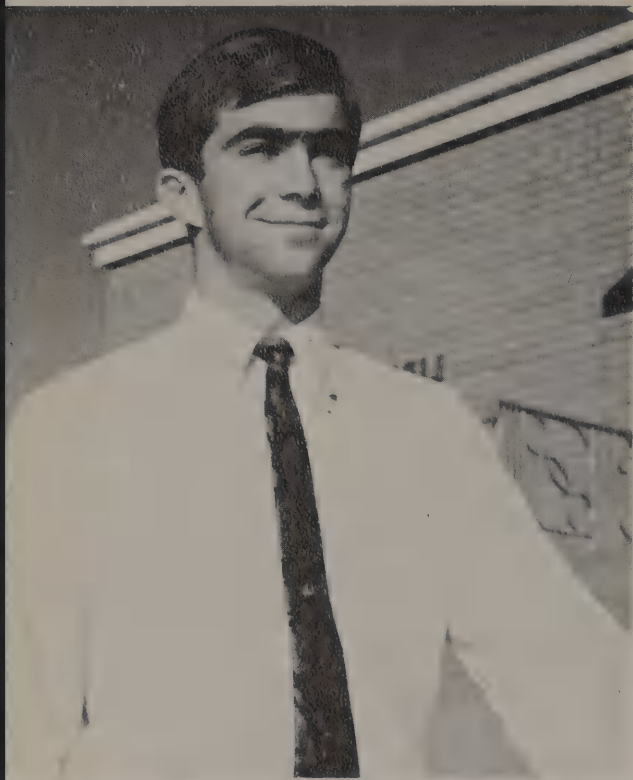

UP WITH PEOPLE rocks out!

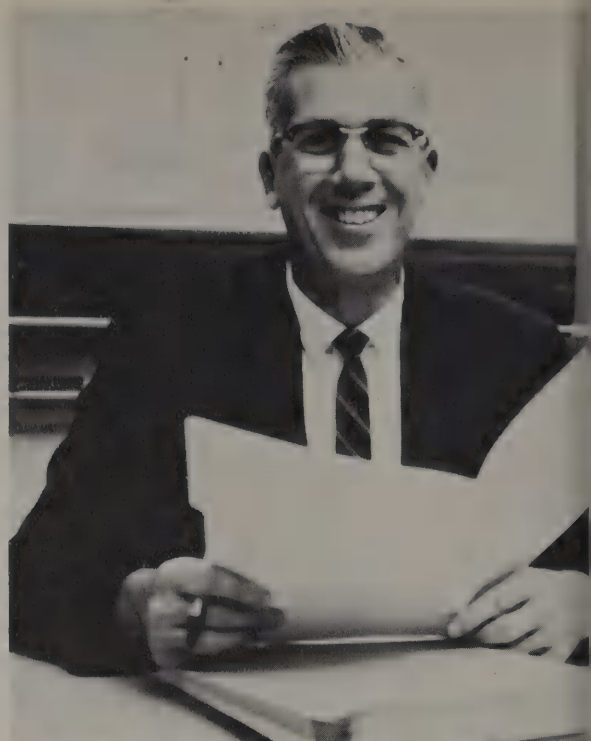

ACTivities

The leader of all Poly bears is our student body president, Brian Worley. Under his able supervision the Commission planned an active year for Poly students.

The Commission advisor is Mr. Walter Davidson (or "Mr. D" as he is more commonly known.) He kept a watchful eye on Commission meetings and added a spark of humor to this organization.

We caught Rick Wheeler, Commission Vice President, on his way to a House of Advisory meeting. He led this organization and pinch-hit for the A.S.B. President at Commission meetings.

Our Commission

Comparing their publications are Ed Wilkinson, Spotlight Editor, and Budd Wentz, Koala Editor. Of course each thinks that his own is superior, but we know that both are tops.

The three class presidents made sure that their classes got equal representation. They are Jim Dykes, Sophomore Class president; Dan Dotta, Junior Class president; and Doug Allen, Senior Class president.

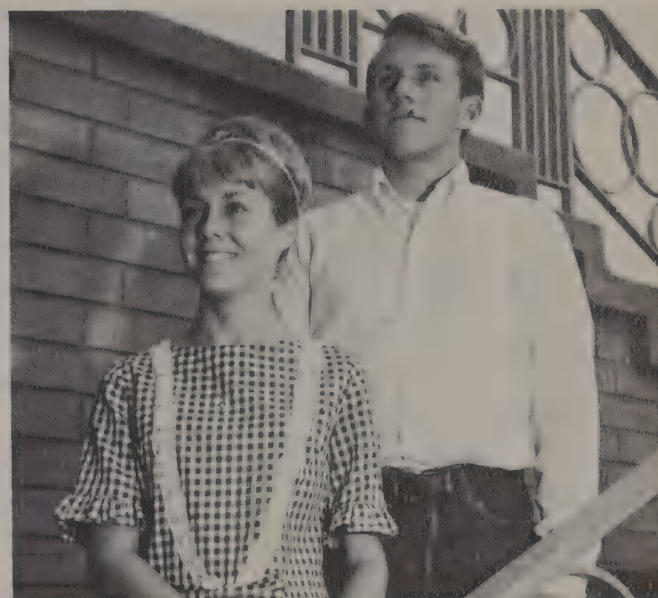

Our energetic student body Commissioners led us onward to even greater heights as they worked hard to keep up Poly's enviable reputation. They organized important events from the Sophomore-Naming assembly (where the magnificent seniors put the "zits" in their places) to graduation.

Head Cheerleader, Marsha Fitch, is preparing to climb a goal post to shout about the latest Poly victory with the help of a squished Director of Assemblies, Marty Howie.

Taking a moment of relaxation are Linda Benveniste, Commissioner of Publicity; and Rick Cruse, Commissioner of Domain. Linda paints signs and Rick finds rooter buses.

Set the Pace at Poly

Leaning on the wall are Barbara Johnson, Commissioner of Social Activities; Roger James, Boys' Welfare; and Gwen Fox, President of Girls' League. Roger seems to be contemplating the CASSA reports.

Two important members of Commission are Sheila Holder, Commissioner of Records, and Jessie Cuellar, Commissioner of Finance. They were kept busy recording and counting money.

Koala - Our

There was one very busy bear on the Koala staff this year—our energetic and enthusiastic Editor-in-chief, Budd Wentz. He spent many hours printing pictures, conjuring up ideas, and making sure that everyone did the job he was supposed to do.

These two members of the Koala staff don't seem to be doing much work, but actually they are just getting in shape for taking action shots at the games. They are Sports Editors Bob Andersen and Norman Sealander.

Sheila Holcomb scowls as Jackie Woy beams at her new-found boyfriend. These girls are Advertising Editors, and Jackie met her dream man while hunting for ads for the Koala.

"Hey, Kiddo!" was a frequent exclamation from Koala advisor, Mr. Kelly Adams. He growled at us and laughed with us to keep the show on the road.

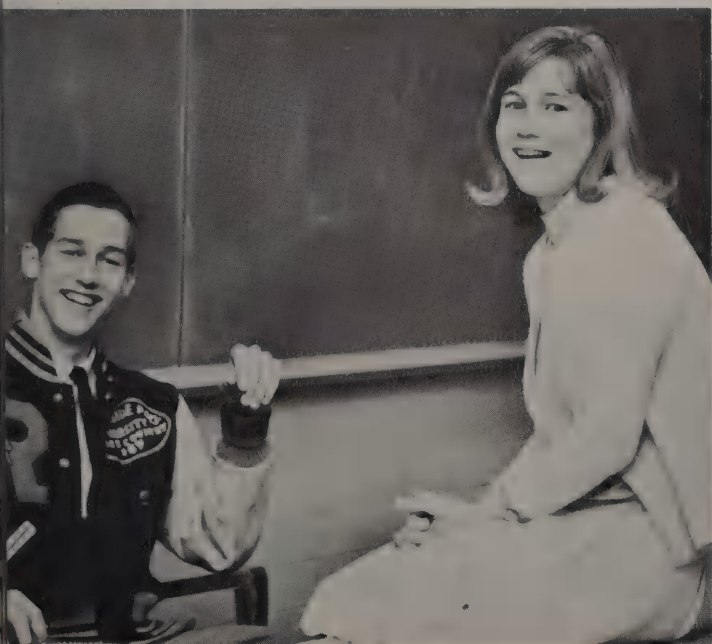

Super Scrapbook

For the last few months the Koala staff has been busy scheduling, taking, and pasting pictures on the dummy sheets. The most frequently heard statement was, "My section has to be done by WHEN?!!" But somehow things were finished and the book was finally ready to present to Polyites.

Norman Richert is checking the latest negatives while Thom Tucker trims pictures for their faculty section. These Faculty Editors also spent many hours working in the darkroom.

Taking a moment's rest are Juli Hobbs and Joyce Shettel, Activities Editors. They spent many hours taking pictures and making sure that every club, all award winners, and activities were included in their section.

The sound of frantic typewriters was commonly heard the night before the Spotlight was supposed to go to print. Somehow it always seemed that someone ended up having one too many stories to write, and one too few hours to do it in. Then there was the problem of getting ads to finance the paper. . . . Miles on the speedometer and hours spent after school attest to the fact that the going was not always easy. Surmounting it all, the Spotlight turned out a bi-weekly paper that informed and entertained us throughout the year.

Giving a copy of the Spotlight the "once over" before its distribution are Bill Beyer, Assistant-Editor and Ed Wilkinson, Editor-in-Chief. With their able supervision they helped make the paper a welcome sight to Polyites.

The Spotlight Showed us Where the

"You mean everything has to be finished today?!!" groans Peter Bohr, News Editor. David Knopf, Sports Editor, isn't answering. He's using every spare second to finish his story for the sports section.

The last step in putting out a Spotlight is making sure that everyone with an A.S.B. card receives one. Shirlie Erb, Circulation Manager, spent many a Friday morning distributing the paper to the eagerly waiting Polyites.

Whether it be a school dance, a track meet, or just a normal cafeteria riot, the Spotlight reporters are sure to be on hand to take down all the details. T. Sawyer, C. Glover, D. Frankel, S. Gerhard, and T. Kesterson were the eager news enthusiasts.

All reporters are concerned with the newspaperman's "five W's" (although the Spotlight reporters are sometimes interested in things like "Who" is going steady with "what" and "why.") These reporters, J. Kelly, P. Martin, J. Kahns, and A. Gilmore (seated) took an interest in all school "affairs" and added much to the interest of the paper.

Action Was

Mari Moore (right), Business Manager, has an edge on all the other members of the staff with her friendly "persuasion." With her supply of Spotlight funds she found that some of the staff, such as Cathy Coor, Features Editor, could be coaxed into doing a little extra work around the Spotlight office.

John Kleinman, Spotlight Photographer, is ready with camera in hand as Doug McDermott, Cartoonist, finishes another masterpiece. But why should John take a picture of the desk?

Happiness is being a member of Girls' League, which is not difficult to do since every Poly girl is automatically a member. Girls' League planned Dad-Daughter Night, a fashion show, and candy cane sales.

Gwen Fox, Girls' League President, helped Mrs. Anne Rush, our new Dean of Girls, who was sponsoring and leading Girls' League for the first time. Together they steered Poly girls through another exciting and worthwhile year.

Being a Girl

Last June the junior girls with the most service hours donned their formals and led the Class of '66 onto the field at Graduation. They were, Row 1: J. Hobbs, M. Gunn, D. Dodson, L. Benveniste, S. Gerhardt, A. Leung, L. Critchlow. Row 2: M. Schlobohm, P. Santy, S. Wing, J. Kahns, B. Johnson, D. Dales, S. Lewis, J. Shettel. Row 3: J. Stratford, J. Wickline, S. Jones, K. Orr, C. Bryant, G. The leaders behind the production of Bear Tracks are Mrs. Emma Haley, sponsor; Pat Santy, Editor-in-Chief; and Mr. Prescott Cogswell, sponsor.

The More

Bear Tracks is Poly's literary magazine. Invariably it receives top ratings from national judges, and it is something we are all proud of.

Seniors who helped with the production of Bear Tracks are, Row 1: Kathy Orr, Alexia Gilmore, Diane Weaver, Margaret Schlobohm, Sandie Gerhardt. Row 2: Cheryl Bryant, Betty Adams, David Knoph, Joyce Shettel, Anne Bishop.

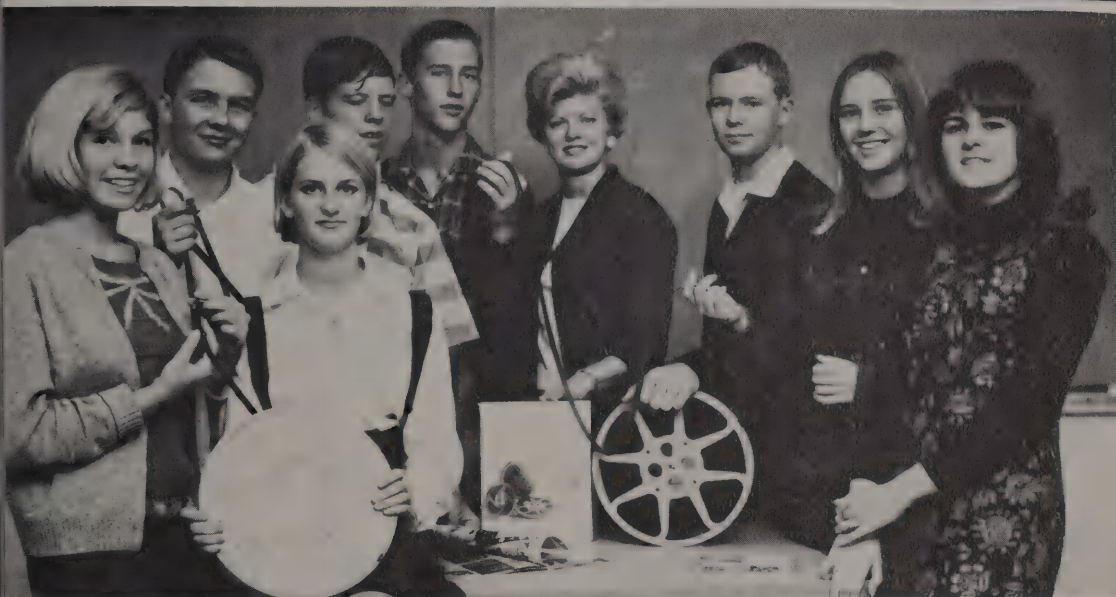

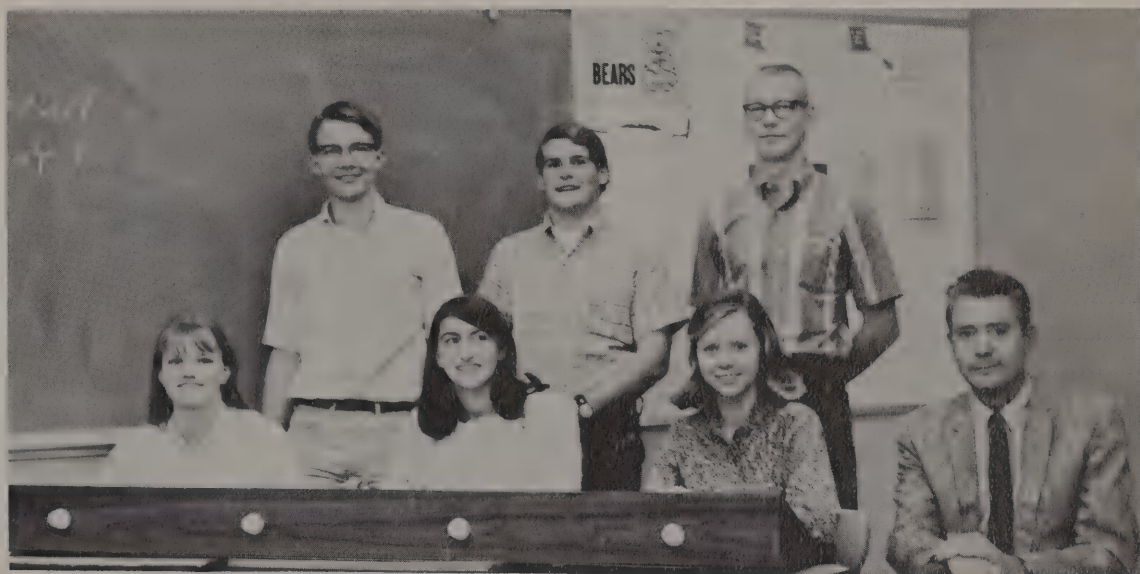

There were even sophomores on the board of Bear Tracks. They were David Wood and Janet Montgomery.

Junior Editors who made sure that material was contributed from their class are Phil Engel, Ray Schulze, Dave Morse, and Carol Huddleston (seated).

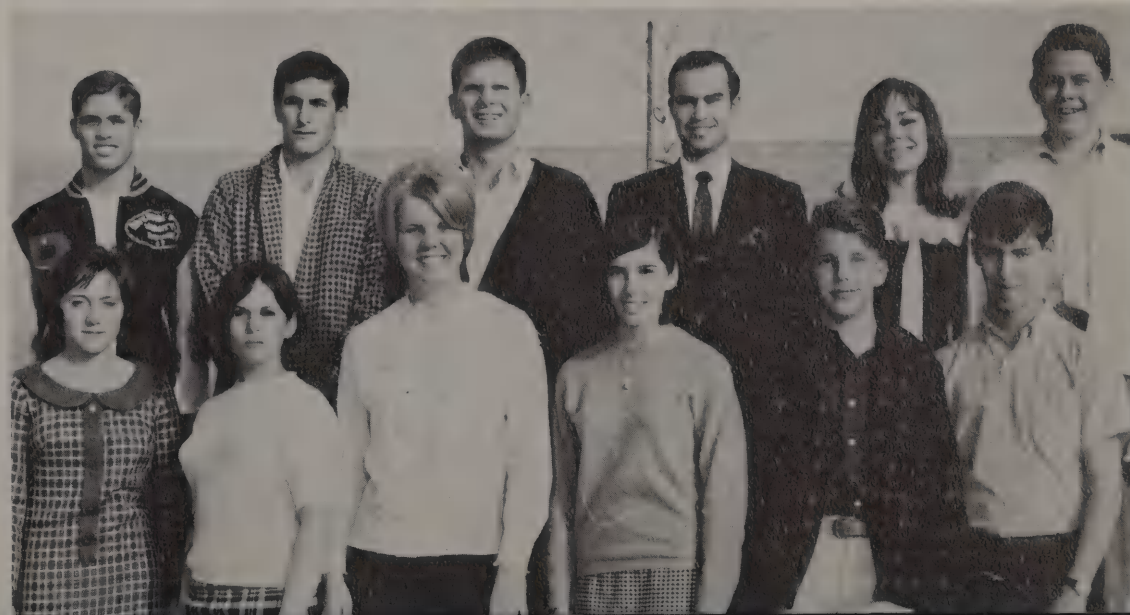

Intellectual Side

These students tested their brains at inter-school Challenge Bowl tournaments and on television's Scholarquiz. Row 1: C. Bryant, P. Santy, M. Schlobohm, Mr. William Bell, sponsor. Row 2: G. Humphries, S. Komarek, N. Richert.

This year the Humanities Club sponsored movies and planned field trips. The officers and board consisted of S. Gillevich, G. Humphries, K. Stephenson, B. Smith, J. Gaffney, Miss Alice Brekke, sponsor; J. Ritter, K. Orr, L. Critchlow.

All the speech-makers at Poly joined N.F.L. (National Forensic League). The members are, Row 1: S. Gerhardt, M. Bauman, D. Youngerman, D. Henderson, K. Ewing, B. Beyer. Row 2: R. Hunter, M. Alpert, D. Kennett, Mr. Stephen Logan, sponsor; S. Joram, B. Anderson.

The "brains" that qualified for C.S.F. for four semesters are the life members. Row 1: J. Shettel, C. Bryant, D. Dodson, B. Brinkerhoff, M. Schlobohm, M. Gunn. Row 2: N. Richert, S. Lewis, D. Allen, M. Cline, D. Wrentmore, A. Leung, B. Wentz.

The master-minds at Poly qualified for the California Scholarship Federation. The main project this year was the Easter Seal Drive for the Crippled Children's Society. Of course there was time for fun and parties and carrying on . . . but then everyone needs to let down once in a while.

Proudly surveying a meeting of C.S.F. are Mr. Eugene Miller, advisor, and Thom Tucker, C.S.F. president.

Midnight Oil

The sophomores who attained scholastic achievement are: Row 1: S. Crawford, C. Heustis, D. Bixler, C. Worthington, K. Nelson, S. Sealander. Row 2: C. Watts, R. Hayes, K. Moody, T. Griffith, C. Henderson, J. Dykes.

Some "Beaoh's" got three "A's" and a "B" and qualified for C.S.F. too. Row 1: P. Engel, C. Huddleston, J. Fast, S. Tribbett, D. Bastedo. Row 2: J. Boroff, D. Russell, L. McCormick, S. Hagen, L. Dalton, P. Bohr.

And of course the mighty seniors excelled and took control of C.S.F. Row 1: T. Munnecke, D. Lemly, D. Allen, D. Wrentmore, B. Wentz. Row 2: N. Richert, M. Gunn, D. Dodson, B. Brinkerhoff, G. The three boys clubs' presidents Dutch Diffenbaugh, Key Club; Roger James, Bruins Club; and Darryl Gillespie, Lettermens' Club, spark a little enthusiasm into their respective organizations. Dutch looks on with calm assurance while Roger tries to add a little humor and Darryl tells his boys to "go-get-'em."

Riva Rooters, the pep club, display some of our traditional Poly spirit as the pom-pom girls and cheerleaders rouse a little enthusiasm during a morning pep rally.

These are the girls whom boys should not try to outdo in sports — the Recreational Leaders. Row 1: S. Ritzau, K. Connelly, C. Olson, S. Jones. Row 2: C. Larson, J. Hill, M. Middleton, C. Ebel, E. Rhodes, Miss Sue Elliott, advisor. Row 3: J. Perry, L. McCormick, J. Lacey, S. Castro, M. Greenhouse, J. Wickline, V. Delon, L. Bourns. Row 4: B. McLean, G. Gardner, J. Van De Sande, M. Schlobohm, P. Ross, M. Wilson, G. Haynes, K. Boddy.

Poly Life

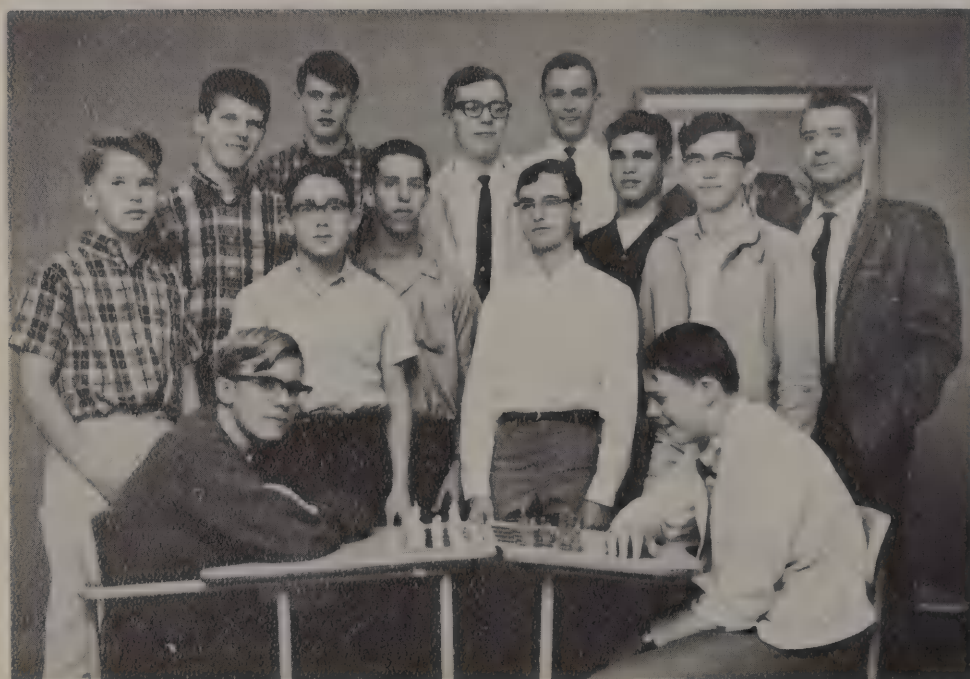

Ever wonder how all those entertaining signs around campus got there? P.C.C. members are Poly informers, and the officers are, Row 1: J. Weinstock, Decorations; L. Benveniste, President. Row 2: M. Bacon, Secretary; J. Stratford, Banner Chairman; J. Ivanoff, Vice-president.

Poly's radio station is something you really should "heer," proclaim Doug Buckout, Bill Stalder, Dale Kennett, and Tom Picarelli, the Disc Jockeys.

Those gifted with the ability to figure out long mathematical and scientific problems (and enjoy it) joined the Math-Science Club. They are, Row 1: F. Critchlow, B. Wentz, Mr. Dennis Hodges, sponsor; M. Wieder, B. Therkelson. Row 2: D. Rubin, G. Matthews, H. Morris, L. Welsh, G. Bourns, N. Richert.

It looks like B. Metcalf has been checkmated by B. Andersen . . . will he elude the trap? The other members of the Chess and Checkers Club are, Row 1: K. Ewing, D. Simon, M. Wieder, G. Mathews. Row 2: L. Welsh, B. Beyer, D. Skog, Mr. William Bell III, sponsor. Row 3: D. Hird, D. Hamilton, T. Tucker.

Members of the Sendai Club pose with some of the nylons they collected in their annual drive. They send these nylons to Sendai, our sister city, and the women there weave the threads into clothing. The members of the club are Yoshiaki Daimon, Luther Welsh, Judy Fullinwider, Mrs. Loraine Thomas, sponsor; and Eden Stockdale.

Specialties

Charley's Aunt Had a Good

Jack Chezney (Eddie Ledford) watches in dismay as "Charley's Aunt" (John Weber) says to Amy Spettigue (Christy Lone), "My dear, we really must see more of each other."

"Oh, you say the sweetest things," says "Charley's Aunt" (John Weber — right) to Steven Spettigue (Josh Tobin).

Time With the Playboy

Widow Quinn (Margaret Schlobohm), Honor Blake (Madeline Volker), and Susan Brady (Cathy Cree), turn on all their feminine charms to attract the "playboy" Christopher Mahon (Steve Komarek).

As You

"Say what thou canst, I'll go along with thee," says Celia (Cathy Worthington, right) to her friend Rosalind (Sandy Joram) as they prepare for their trip into the Forest of Arden.

Jaques (John Weber, center) jokingly informs a forester (Dave Robb) that he is a "soldier full of strange oaths and bearded like the pard," while Duke Senior (Greg Fast) watches over Jaques' shoulder.

Audrey (Denise Dales) with her "quick" mind, and Touchstone the Fool (Dan Dockstader) give an engaging performance as they contemplate marriage.

With a deep curtsy and a polite phrase, Le Beau (Dave Dotson) salutes Duke Frederick (Doug Buckout) while Lords and Ladies of the court look on.

The Mighty Bears Squashed

Dale DeLlamas stretches for another yard after smashing through Colton's line. He lunges forward with such fury that even the camera couldn't catch his action.

Our Varsity football team, in spite of a large number of injuries early in the season, came in third in the Ivy League. A switch from single wing to T formation and a few shifts in position among the players brought victory to Poly throughout the season. Although four Poly players received all Ivy League honors, this season was, according to Head-Coach Ben Hammerschmidt, "... a season not of individuals, but of an overall team doing an outstanding job."

The members of the Varsity Football team were, Row 1: R. Taylor, J. Robinson, J. Jester, F. Whittaker, E. Rose, T. Cuffaro, J. Ridpath, D. McDermott, R. Andavall, P. Nugent. Row 2: J. Tavaglione, R. Lines, C. Peterson, D. Allen, M. De Cesare, H. Hall, D. Gillespie, D. De-

Obie Wilson, a member of the Bee football team, has just received the ball, and is planning how he will elude the trap that faces him. Of course he is successful and gains yardage for his team.

The Bee team was made up of, Row 1: K. Schorr, J. Robinson, J. Dodd, S. Fishler, B. Fullagar, O. Russell, B. Kern, J. Caylor, J. Holbrook, D. Thomas. Row 2: B. Taylor, G. Suel, B. Spencer, T.

Gunkel, S. Faure, K. Tank, R. Bearskin, R. Thorne, O. Wilson, C. Fast, H. Green, J. Lindsay. Row 3: P. DuBois, K. Batzle, D. Kroh, V. Keaton, B. Pearson, M. Walker, S. Gambles, D. Doty, J. Hayes, M. Storey, S. Wight, P. Taylor.

Mr. Theodore Meows, Assistant Varsity Water Polo Coach; and Mr. Al Jennings, Varsity Water Polo Coach, kept their team in excellent shape in order to bring victory to Poly.

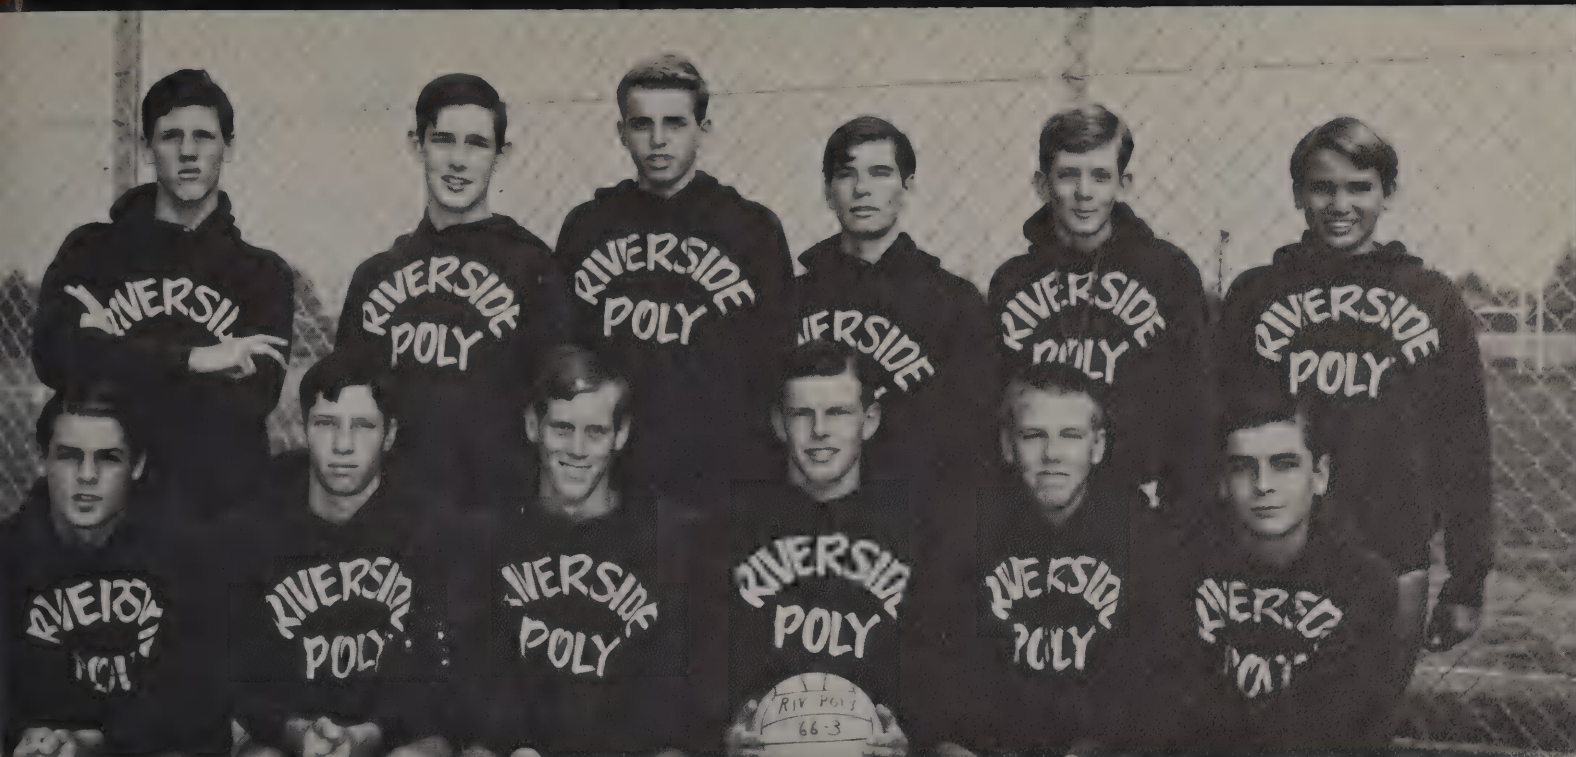

Swimming hard to reach that ball is Jon Facey. Following this he fired into the goal in the true "Facey" fashion.

Casaba Season

Poly's Varsity team, better known as Ray Halle's six-footers, surprised everyone but themselves this year. They placed 3rd in the Kiwanis Basketball Tourney for the first time in Poly's history, placed 2nd behind Colton in the Ivy League, and were edged out of the CIF playoffs by an overtime loss to North.

Leading Poly to inevitable victories was John Derho. Here he shows some of the style that helped Poly romp to many a win. Dale DeLlamas is ready to back him up.

TRACK HISTORY

"An individual effort from each and every one of you." This demand of Coach Lew Kummerow was met by a track team that truly worked as a team. Lacking a "superstar," a high point earner at every meet, Poly's track men banded together and possibly worked even harder than last year's championship team to produce a consistent record of wins. Coach Kummerow is already looking forward to next year's team, which will contain many returning members.

The "C" Track team ran as our smallest tyrants of the turf. Row 1: J. Gaffney, M. Lydon, W. Watt. Row 2: D. Kern, D. Allen.

Our mighty golf team coached by Mr. Glen McGowan eagled, birdied, and parred its way to well earned victory this year. Their outstanding efforts paid off when they brought an All-Ivy League Championship home to Poly. Following the lead of Kirk Butterwick, the rest of the team contributed substantially to Poly's honor.

Poly's golf team, led by Mr. Glenn McGowan, made the course with plenty of "eagles." Row 1: B. Bothwell, D. Lucas, D. Pooley, J. Chase. Row 2: Mr. G. McGowan (coach), D. Wilson, M. Beem, K. Butterwick, D. Davis, J. Lilliedoll, M. Sherrill, D. Franz, B. Huckell.

Poly Swimmers

Poly Mermen stroked their way to victory during this year's very successful season. They broke seven varsity records and came in second in C.B.L. Richard Hunter, a Poly senior, won all C.I.F. in the 100-yard free style. The swimming teams certainly swam a straight course to victory!

That Rubidoux man doesn't have a chance. . . . Tim Zikratch already has that ball well in hand.

Under Coach Ben Hammerschmidt's fierce supervision, Poly's hard-working baseball team got off to a promising start by defeating Eisenhower 7 to 5. They slumped, however, in the middle of the season, losing a 21 to 7 free-for-all to our cross town rivals, the Huskies. This year's "spark-plug" was Loran Goodwin. With a grand slam homer against Eisenhower and a .422 batting average to his credit, Loran has shown exceptional ability.

PEP

Coach Ray Halle summed up this year's Pep Squad in the following word — "Great" —. The team called them "inspiring," and the school knew them as "The Best." We owe a great deal to this year's Pep Squad, which helped our "under dogs" to a great deal of success in the Ivy League.

Made Perfect

The Reserve Officers Training Corps, better known to most as the R.O.T.C. of Polytechnic High School, marched, and marched, and marched, and marched, and did push-ups to the tune of "Yes, sir!" After winning the 6th Army Recruitment award over 56 other high schools, they proceeded to take trips to the Marine Recruitment Depot, Ft. Erwin, and various other garden spots for their annual war games. After the officers gave the O.C.S. candidates their usual "hazing," they finished out this year with their annual Honor Night and Military Ball.

"Why don't you pick one up and smoke it sometime?" (after you're eighteen, that is), ask Mike Rutten and Bill Smith. MUNDY'S PHARMACY, 6511 MAGNOLIA AVENUE, has something for the whole family.

The brilliance of the ring that Sue Lanier is wearing is too much for Brian Worley's eyes. Mrs. Penny Muskie is glad to help at LUMAN GREEN JEWELERS, 3913 MAIN and 6754 BROCKTON.

"Is it dead, yet?" asks Becky Brown of Judy Nelson. "Almost," replies Judy, "But BROWN'S ENGINE REBUILDING, 3372 UNIVERSITY, can bring it back to life!"

Janelee Campbell and Marty Howie are making themselves at home at HUFFMAN'S FURNITURE, 3498 UNIVERSITY. They agree that the furniture there is tops!

This fascinating display of dairy products is from MEADOWBROOK DAIRY, 3631 MERRILL. Gary Mead, Cindy Smith, Dale Connley, Robert Alkire, and Jackie Woy agree that their milk is great.

Norman Richert, Laura Pitney, and Budd Wentz just can't get to LA PALOMA, 1795 UNIVERSITY, fast enough. The complete Mexican meals here tantalize anyone's taste buds.

Diane Weaver knows that the best place around for practicing her handwriting and for purchasing good quality writing materials is at the STATIONERS CORP., 3650 FAIRMONT and 3605 PLAZA MALL.

There's nothing like a good evening of television; so David Terry went to TAYLOR'S APPLIANCE, 4043 MAIN, to find the best TV available.

Suzanne Burrows and Doug Perry admire some of the lovely rings at RICHARD'S DIAMOND SPECIALISTS, 3634 PLAZA MALL, with the help of Mrs. Phyllis Novak.

"All aboard!" yell Suzy Lewis, Gayle Pope (front), Kay Swoffer, and Sue Victor (back). They're off to deliver chicken feed to all the hungry chickens out there in chicken land. The best chicken feed is from BROOK-HURST MILL, 3315 VAN BUREN.

Looking for an extra special gift for an extra special person? WALTER'S JEWELERS, 5212 ARLINGTON AVENUE, is just the place to go for friendly service and excellent jewelry. Just ask Barbara McLean. She knows!

Ready, set, go! Dave Mixon and "Billy the Kid" Martin gobble down food from SIR GEORGE'S SMORGASBORD HOUSE, 3525 MERRILL, the place "we kids love."

Need extra cash to rent that beach house for spring vacation? Janet Borter helps Lyn Brown pick up that needed money at COMMUNITY LOAN SERVICE, 3836 ORANGE and 3685 SUNNYSIDE DRIVE.

Bill Brown and Kevin Mathews are considering painting the town red. Of course the place to buy the paint is PITTSBURGH PLATE GLASS COMPANY, 3550 UNIVERSITY STREET.

This may not be the matador's way to meet a bull, but Linda Trifone, Charlene Olson, and Sue Shine would like to keep as much space between them and the "ferocious" animal. DUTCH PREMIUM DAIRY, 4894 TESQUESQUITE, has many such cows, and the best milk around.

Alexia Gilmore, Denise Dales, and Judy Kahns decided to stop in for a coke at McDONALD'S HAMBURGERS, 2242 UNIVERSITY, and just couldn't leave. McDONALD'S is the best place for any snack from a coke to a complete hamburger dinner.

Four o'clock may be pretty early to start delivering milk, but it's worth it when you can have all the samples you want from SWISS DAIRY, 4221 BUCHANAN. Greg Fast, Jill Moulton, and Sue Seeley are considering making it a regular job.
